District Schools To Begin Term With Full Schedule

Elementary schools of Campbell Union School District will open Monday for a full-day session. School bus drivers have been assigned their routes and will follow the same schedules as last year. The hot lunch program for the district will be in operation on opening day. Lunches are 25c.

For teachers of the district, the school year began officially Friday morning when twenty new teachers met in the administration offices for an orientation session and were introduced to supervisors and special teachers of the district.

Following this a meeting of all Campbell teachers was held in the kindergarten of Campbell Grammar school.

Offices of the Campbell, San Tomas and Moorpark schools have been open during the past two weeks for registration of new students, and will continue enrollments Monday.

Although Friday was the first official day on deck for the school teachers, all teachers in the Campbell area began their work for the new term at the first of the week, when they pitched in to line up supplies and courses and to arrange their classrooms in preparation for the school term opening next Monday.

San Jose To Appeal Bradley Manor Court Decision

San Jose City Council voted on Monday night to appeal Superior Judge Leonard R. Avila's decision finding the Bradley Manor annexation invalid.

As was predicted in local circles, the private conferences held by San Jose city and Campbell school representatives, together with other interested individuals, failed to resolve the problem because a decision of this unofficial group could not set aside the decision of Judge Avila.

Legal counsel for the city of San Jose has been instructed to prepare the appeal. In effect Judge Avila's decision found that residents of the Bradley Manor district had been denied the right of petition when their names were stricken by the city council from a petition opposing the annexation.

Needy Pupils Receive Milk and Lunches; VNA Provides Care For Sick At Home

In addition to youth groups and the Campbell Library, two other important items on the Campbell Community Service Fund budget receive aid from civic-minded citizens who contribute to the campaign each year. These are the Visiting Nurse Association and the School Milk Fund, the latter providing milk and lunches for needy children in the three Campbell Union School District units plus Moreland and Cambrian schools.

Of the total 1950 goal of $11,639.80, $900 has been budgeted for the Campbell Milk and Lunch Fund; $163 for Moreland School; $204.80 for Cambrian School, and $500 for the Visiting Nurse Association.

MILK FUND

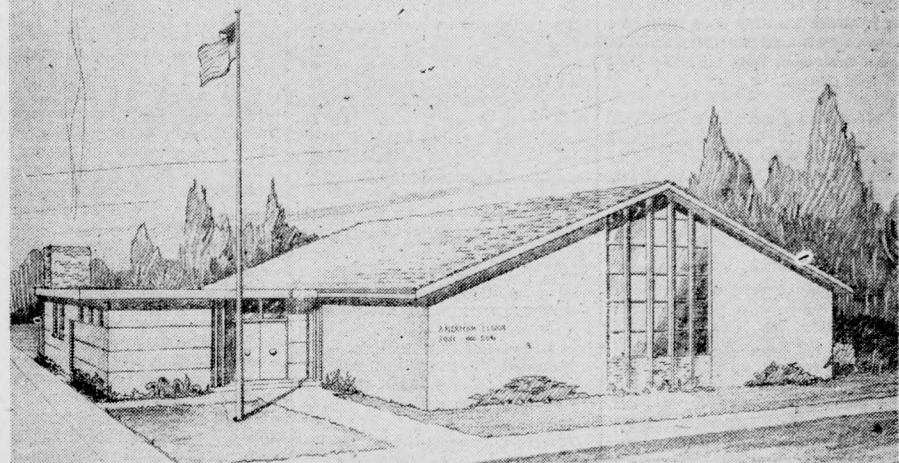

In a letter to the Community Service Fund committee, Superintendent William C. Henley of the Campbell Union School District, reported that while the $900 received last year and requested for this year does not fully take care of the needs, many children are also covered under the cafeteria fund. The money is used to supply lunches and free milk to needy pupils. Those who receive the milk and meals are carefully selected by the school nurses and principals and are definitely deserving people.

Mrs. Eugen C. Andres Jr., president of the board of directors of the Visiting Nurse Association, stated in the formal request for inclusion of the VNA on this year's budget, that "nearly 400 calls in the Campbell area were made by the organization last year, at an expense of $987, little of which was pay work."

CARE OF SICK

Purpose of the VNA is to provide skilled professional nursing care to the sick at home on a visit or part time basis. The fee is $2.50 per visit or any fraction thereof. Quality of service is not affected by payment. Those unable to pay are carried free. About 60 percent of the calls represent free visits to the sick. Services are refused to

Plans for Campbell's new Legion hall were approved Wednesday night by Post 596 and the Auxiliary. Mrs. S. N. Hedegard, president of the building company, has announced that construction will begin as soon as final details are settled. The hall will be erected on the Legion lot on Latimer Avenue.

State Aid Acceptance Election Slated For Union School District September 26

Union School District voters will go to the polls September 26 to determine whether the district will accept $623,359 in state school bond money. The district was qualified to receive the bonds by approving a $56,000 district bond issue last November. Polls will be open from 1 to 8 p.m. in the old Union School building. Approval of the proposal requires a two-thirds majority of those voting.

District Superintendent Kenneth McDonnell explained that in case the district ever changes from residential to industrial use the district will be in better position to pay back the state money. So long as the district remains urban residential in character, it will not pay back the state bond funds. Acceptance of the state aid will not raise property taxes, McDonnell emphasized.

A public meeting to discuss the coming election will be held Wednesday, September 20 in the new school building. It is hoped that subdividers in the district will be on hand to outline plans for future building in the district.

R. A. Mirassou, clerk of the school's board of trustees, will be chairman of the evening. Board members have tentatively agreed to spend the funds, should they be approved by the voters, to complete the new school on Los Gatos-Almaden Road and to erect a separate school for kindergarten through sixth grade pupils in the northern part of the district. Higgins and Root are the architects retained by the district to prepare plans for the future school.

Union District School board members are Mirassou, Kenneth Jensen and Dr. Wyland R. Morgan.

Superintendent W. C. Henley Confers With State Education Dept. Officials

Slow progress on Campbell Union School District's proposed building program was reported today by Superintendent William C. Henley on his return from a trip to Sacramento to talk over some district problems with officials of the State Department of Education.

Henley said he talked with Frank Cook, officer in charge of allocation of State School Bond Funds to Local Allocation Boards. Frank Wright, Chief of Division of School Administration and Alfred Lentz, administrative advisor to the State Department of Education. Further action on the building program probably will not come until after the special session of the State Legislature.

Methods of speeding action on allocations of funds earmarked for the state's distressed school districts is one of the items on the agenda of the special legislative session.

Campbell has on file an application for $1,700,000 for a proposed building program, and is awaiting action by the allocations board.

Other problems Henley discussed included corrective legislation for annexation procedures and simplification of attendance records in union districts.

Henley says he is trying to promote some better legislation for keeping of attendance records in large union districts. Under present methods records of sub districts within the union district must be separated in school registers and accounted for separately. The procedure makes for complicated bookkeeping and has no financial advantage when a sub district has more than 85 pupils.

Purposes of the corporation are: to promote the art of better planting of flower gardens, to promote a greater interest in the care of gardens, to foster good fellowship among the members and to hold annual flower displays.

Committee Ready For Sept. 22 Drive Opening

All business district captains, workers and Campbell area businessmen will gather at 7 a.m. September 22 for the kickoff breakfast which will launch the 1950 Campbell Community Service Fund Drive. The breakfast, to be held in Bucs' Cove at Campbell Union High School, will be under chairmanship of Laurance J. Hill. Speakers will be Mrs. J. W.

Knowles, president of the Service Fund committee; Mr. C. P. Klassen, 1950 campaign manager, and Hill. Price of the breakfast will be 50 cents.

Following the breakfast, the workers will set out to canvass the business district for contributions and pledges to the 1950 fund. Last year, $1000 was collected during the first day. Klassen announced the first-day goal this year will be $2000. Theme for the first day will be a dawn to dusk canvass of the entire business district. Campbell Rotarians have volunteered to cover the central business district, and Dobbie Jeffers, chairman of the Rotarians' community service committee, will be captain for that district. Four other captains have been named for outlying areas, as follows: H. M. Shadle, north Winchester Road and Stevens Creek Road; Don Lukehart, San Tomas business district; Henry Jewell, San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Cambrian Corners south; J. F. "Budd" Levenberg, San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Cambrian Corners north to Burbank. Following the business district drive beginning September 22, emphasis on the following week will be on door-to-door canvassing in the residential area.

All Rotarians will serve on Jeffers' committee. His immediate assistants will be Joaquin Payne, Tony Raffanti, Harry Rediker and Fred Jones Jr.

Meanwhile, George Kemp, campaign publicity chairman, announced that all publicity leads outlined at the beginning of the drive have been followed up. In addition, the Rossi Furniture Company has donated use of its sign on the northwest corner of San Jose-Los Gatos Road at Hamilton Avenue during the campaign.

A commercial artist is needed to volunteer to handle sign and poster work for the drive. Volunteers may call Kemp at Campbell 2846. Miss Kathleen Bull, business teacher at the high school, has contributed many hours of work handling letters and poster reproduction jobs for the committee.

ESCAPE TO ADVENTURE.

This is a good, well-written book important as a historical document and outstandingly good as an autobiography. It is concerned with the experiences of the young Scottish soldier and diplomat during the world war. He was parachuted into German-held Yugoslavia in 1943, and describes his exploits in Russia, Asia, China and Yugoslavia with the extreme of modesty. His sense of humor shines throughout, his keenness of observation makes his scenes and the people come to life within the pages, and his style from beginning to end is clear and expert. One of the best personal narratives type of thing to come out of the war by one of England's best reporters.

Mellinger, May.

CLOAK OF LAUGHTER. 1950.

The scene of this novel is San Francisco during the period of the 1930 depression. It is a first novel. The tone is at times rueful, at times realistic. Four young people are the chief protagonists in a tale of gallantry and courage, of laughter in the face of despair. Miss Mellinger's style is smooth and sprightly, and the story's greatest appeal lies in its honesty and guilelessness. The ending is perhaps a little too neat.

Maass, Edgar.

WORLD AND PARADISE. 1950

A long fictional account of the religious and political chaos in the 1600's during the Thirty Years' War. Most of the historical episodes stick very close to the fact, and the wanton destruction of Magdeburg is especially well described. The characters themselves are romanticized. Some of the leading ones are Count Harrach, Rosanna, who he meets in a Moravian settlement and with whom he falls in love, and Wallenstein, Gustavus Adolphus and Richelieu. It is around Karl and Rosanna that the author weaves love and romance in a background of color and intrigue.

Barker, A. L.

APOLOGY FOR A HERO. 1950

A story of middle age, the hero is Charles Candy, an English clerk, who dogged by his feeling of inferiority is helped toward a fulfillment of his real nature after his marriage. The death of his wife and subsequent relations with his wife's sister interrupt and threaten his "peace of mind" in a story which prove him to be essentially a very dull individual. In spite of this depressing conclusion, Miss Barker has written a beautifully perceptive study with shrewd characterizations combined with fresh and vivid descriptions of landscape that prove her to be an artist. This is Miss Barker's first novel—she emerges as a writer of exceptional talent, fulfilling the promise of a previous publication—a collection of short stories titled THE INNOCENTS.

amins and the Joyces. Moses Benjamin was an immigrant from Rumania who settled in Silver Peak by accident, where eventually he became proprietor of the city's largest department store. His son, Simon, is vigorous and lustful, his son Joseph, poetic and gentle, and his daughter, Della, suffers domestic difficulties in the manner of the best radio heroines. The Joyce family was somewhat more exotic—John Joyce, the father of two abnormal sons and five beautiful daughters, was an ex-minstrel, an ex-lawyer and an amateur of the piano. The Joyces are a fantastic and flamboyant group of characters, and the mingling of Benjamins and Joyces makes for a certain extravagance appropriate to the Montana of the period.

This is an exciting story of the warfare between the sheep and cattle men of Wyoming. Cattlemen had drawn a deadline south of the Spider Water and warned that no sheep must cross the line. The story opens on a blustering March morning with young Ben Connick uneasily preparing his breakfast after moving two herds of sheep across the line. Red McGrath seeks to control the violence that follows Ben's murder from becoming mass slaughter. Plenty of color and action for all Western fans.

Cupertino Grange's Second Birthday Prompts Entertainment by Valley Corps

Cupertino IOOF Hall was crowded last Friday evening by local and visiting Grangers celebrating the second birthday anniversary of Cupertino Grange 739. Rounds of applause greeted a varied program shared by the Santa Clara Valley granges under their respective masters.

Lecturer Fred L. Wood was master of ceremonies. Master Dwight F. Sheffer opened the evening with a brief welcoming address. Palo Alto Grange sponsored a group of fancy dances by four quartets of little dancers in colorful costumes. They were directed by Mrs. F. F. Goodenow.

San Jose Grange presented Helen Nix and Al Robbins in comical solos and duets. Sister Lulu Belle King of San Jose made an earnest appeal for more blood donors.

VARIED PROGRAM

Lecturer Annie Currier of San Jose Grange offered a humorous reading, "The Golden Rule." Levi Richman represented Gilroy Grange in a number of banjo and harmonica selections. Congratulatory remarks were made by Pomona Master John C. Gordon and Master Martin S. Walsh of Orchard City Grange.

Depicting the woeful plight of the male sex 50 years hence were Austin Spencer, Virgil Cooper and Elsie Eaton of Mountain View Grange, aided by stage settings. Ed George of Almaden Grange opened his bag of tricks, with ensuing gales of laughter.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

The address of the evening was made by State Grange Overseer Edwin Koster of Oakdale Grange, who instituted Cupertino Grange in 1948. The male quartet of Morgan Hill Grange rendered a group of songs and was followed by Cupertino's hilarious closing number, "A Pair of Living Marionettes," ably impersonated by Maxine Grevstad and Ernest Angelo, supported by backstage assistants.

Honored guests of the occasion were State Grange Overseer Edwin Koster and Grange Masters J. C. Gordon of Santa Clara Pomona, Frank Bishop of Mount Hamilton, Stanley Smith of San Jose, John B. Paroline of Morgan Hill, Bay Hays of Mountain View, and Judge Martin S. Walsh of Orchard City.

Birthday cake, ice cream and coffee were served to all present by the host committee: Mary Breeding, Helen Ames, Mary King, Ruth King, Maxine Grevstad and John Breeding.

Next Grange meeting will be on September 22 at the IOOF Hall.

Legion Auxiliary Members Approve Building Plans

Mrs. Rex Kaber, newly installed president of the American Legion Auxiliary No. 596, conducted her first meeting Wednesday evening when members of the unit convened in the library clubrooms for their first meeting of the fall season.

Business for the evening included the approval by the unit of the Legion building plans, which are expected to get under way in the near future. Reports of the department convention were also heard from Delegates Iva Kaber, Louise Fairchild and Henrietta Smith.

Resignation of Mrs. C. M. Clever as secretary of the unit was accepted by the membership and Mrs. Rex Kaber was elected to complete the term of office.

A citation for the unit history book was also read and also a citation for membership during the last year.

Mrs. C. E. Fagalde discussed the hospital program for the next year and announced that the next hospital party was scheduled for September 20, at which time members would convene at the library at 6 o'clock and then proceed to the Palo Alto Veterans Administration Hospital.

Following the close of business refreshments were enjoyed with the men in the IOOF building.

Rotary Speaker Assails U.S. Trend Toward Socialism

Campbell Rotarians reminisced about their recent barbecue party when they viewed films of the event at the Monday luncheon meeting. Cameraman Frank Accardi unreeled the color pictorial report which consisted largely of candid shots taken on the fairways during the golf game which preceded the barbecue.

Speaker of the day was Forrest Reese, new secretary-manager of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, who was originally scheduled to talk on the aims of the local chamber. Reese changed his subject to "Individual Obligations of Each American," and drew praise from fellow members for his forthright presentation of the theme.

The secretary of the Rotary club described the tendency of the average citizen to follow the leader as similar to the tale of the Pied Piper of Hamelin, based on the children's crusade of 1212 in which innocent children were led out of Jerusalem and sold into serfdom and prostitution.

"Are we American thinkers or are we children who follow?" asked Reese. The current communistic and socialistic theme song is like that of the Pied Piper. It is the song of the welfare state and we are now in the midst of a socialistic crusade. We are being led no one. All age groups and economic levels are represented in the case load; first consideration being given to the sickest and to those in greatest need of guidance. The Visiting Nurses carry no patients without adequate medical supervision.

The VNA is also concerned with young parents and their infants. To that end they conduct a class in Mother and Fathercraft which is administered by the Adult Education Division of the Santa Clara County Schools and which many of the expectant mothers in Campbell regularly attend.

Last year, according to Helena Tepper, director of nurses, some of the visits to those who requested help in Campbell had to be curtailed because of limited personnel due to insufficient funds.

Basic cost per person per visit is evaluated at $1.99. Total cost per nurse per year for 1949-50 was $4,106.68. The nurse who visits in the Campbell area received a salary of $2,190, but this was for a 40-hour week and did not cover the large amount of overtime which is never made up.

Stationery Store Plans Opening This Saturday

Dave Ribble's Campbell Stationery will open Saturday, September 16, at 200 E. Campbell Avenue, former location of the Campbell Press, in the IOOF Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ribble and son, Dave Jr., will run the stationery shop which will be a needed addition to the growing Campbell business district. The store will feature stationery, school supplies, greeting cards, office supplies, calendars, business forms, book matches, and paper appointments and decorations for parties. In addition there will be a hobby shop.

The new shop, which occupies the entire front section of the building with the exception of the office space for Justice of the Peace Martin S. Walsh, has undergone a complete interior redecoration.

A floor covering of old rose colored linoleum has been installed, and the rear walls have been papered with a charming leaf pattern of rose, black and grey-green. The side walls are painted green and cream color.

A new entrance on the left side of the main door has been cut through to serve Judge Walsh's office which is still to be completed. The office is separated from the store by a glass wall partition.

The Ribbles are long-time Campbell residents. Mr. Ribble has been in the newspaper advertising field in Santa Cruz and Mountain View during recent years.

down the primrose path to serfdom.

Reese's speech has attracted wide attention, and he has been asked to repeat his talk before Los Gatos Rotary Club in the near future.

During the meeting, Dobbie Jeffers, chairman of the club's community service committee, moved that the Rotarians take over the solicitation work in the business district for the forthcoming Campbell Community Service Fund drive. The motion was approved, and Jeffers was named chairman of arrangements. He and his committee will work with Service Fund officers, and all Rotarians will be expected to serve as solicitors during the September 22 business area drive for the community project. Jeffers, his committee and all Rotarians are expected to attend the kickoff breakfast for the business district drive September 22 at 7 a.m. in Bues' Cove at Campbell High school.

Further details were not available on the coming Rotary-Kiwanis baseball game.

At next week's meeting, Mr. Company, San Jose map making Harrington of the H. M. Gousha concern, will be the speaker. His topic will be "Mapmaking" and he will exhibit maps in various stages of completion.

Campbell Garden Club Wins First Prize

Campbell Garden Club set itself a fine record this week with its first entry in the Santa Clara County Fair. The organization's entry, a complete garden, took first prize in the informal garden division. Mrs. A. F. Leal, chairman of the fair entry, was assisted by some 16 of the club members in arranging the layout and planting the 400 square foot garden. Green and white are the dominant colors in the charming setting which includes a pool with fish floats, surrounded by large white weathered rock and lots of fern. A weeping willow shades the white bench, and a real lawn edged by flowers and shrubs, completes the garden.

Gasoline Fails To Ignite When Truck Burns

Drivers of a gasoline truck and a building materials truck suffered minor injuries Tuesday at 11 a.m. when their trucks collided and overturned at Eldon Drive and San Jose-Los Gatos Road, near Cambrian Corners.

Driver George L. Sheets, 24, of San Jose, driver of the Union Oil Co. gasoline truck, broke the window of the truck cab and escaped when his vehicle caught fire and threatened to ignite the 180 gallons of gas in the truck. Although the truck was seriously damaged by the fire, the gasoline failed to ignite.

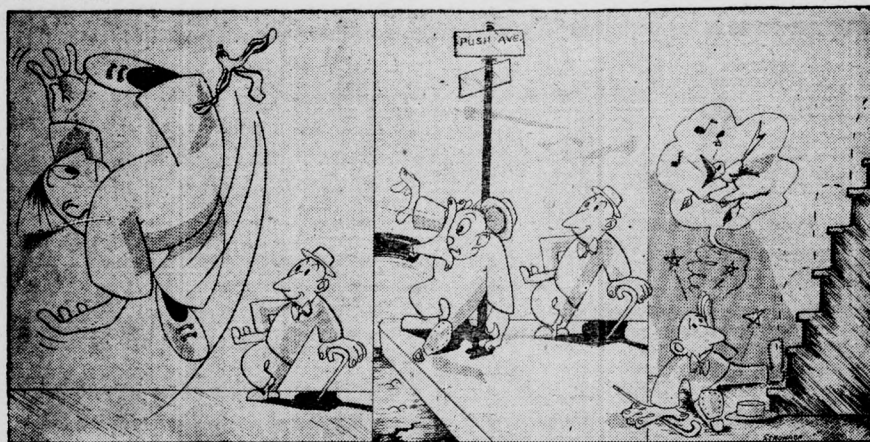

Albert Hixon, also of San Jose, was driver of the building materials truck.

County Fire Department crews led by Assistant Fire Chief Fred Luhnig answered the fire alarm.

Kin to radar, "Jump-Jump" hurls television from point to point on radio beams aimed like a searchlight.

WEST'S FIRST TELEVISION NETWORK

Relay system to operate between San Francisco and Los Angeles

1. Amplifying equipment like this is connected with the hornlike antennas above to relay television programs or long distance telephone calls from one part of the country to another. Engineers call it micro-wave...for it uses high-frequency radio waves, and it gets its nickname, "Jump-Jump," because the beams leap-frog between relay stations located on mountains 28 to 65 miles apart.

2. Television programs can be relayed from one point to another by micro-wave or by coaxial cable. The first leg of a Western television network will begin operating between San Francisco and Los Angeles September 15 over the newly-completed "Jump-Jump" system. And we're going ahead with surveys and experiments to extend the television network to other areas of the West.

3. The research which produced this micro-wave system was conducted in Bell Telephone Laboratories...originators of so many electronic developments. Hundreds of them have led to better telephone service at lower cost...and have played a major part in making your telephone the big value it is today. For in spite of rising prices, telephone rates have gone up much less than our costs of providing service. On the average, our prices have gone up less than half as much as the cost of living generally.

New Charter Filed By Freeholders

The new Santa Clara County Charter was officially filed yesterday at the courthouse in San Jose by the Board of Freeholders, for acceptance at the polls November 7. The 9000-word home-rule county constitution was submitted by Freeholder Chairman Fred A. Wickett of Palo Alto to the County Clerk, County Recorder and the Board of Supervisors.

Comparison of the new and old charters disclosed much unnecessary wordage has been eliminated. The new charter is about 1200 words longer, however, due to its greater detail in strengthening control over the county's $30,000,000 fiscal operations and in defining the health and welfare commission, the personnel board and the directors who work with them.

Like the charter approved by the voters in 1948, it provides an integrated administrative system headed by a county executive appointed by and answerable to the Board of Supervisors who are elected as at present. It supersedes the 1948 charter which was nullified by lower courts because of a type transposition in the election notice in a San Jose paper.

Major change in the new charter is in organization of county welfare and health activities which require the bulk of the county's revenue.

As in the 1948 charter, the Board of Supervisors and policymaking officers are elected and all administrative officers and advisory boards are appointed.

Children's Art To Be Exhibited

An exhibit of children's drawings will open this Saturday at Montalvo in conjunction with the presentation of the children's play, "Alice In Wonderland."

The drawings will be brought from San Jose and have been collected by Miss Philoma Goldsborough, art supervisor in the San Jose schools. Works of children of all ages from the very young through junior high school will be shown.

Miss Estella Hoisholt of Saratoga, member of the Friends of Montalvo which is sponsoring this and future shows, announced that the exhibit probably will remain at Montalvo until the final lecture in the current series which began at the art center yesterday.

POPULAR RECORDS: The renewed popularity of Dixieland music for the "pop" fans and the baroque Italians for the long-haired segment of the listening public is perhaps a method of escape from the events of the times to what we feel was "the good old days" when life was calmer and happier. Somehow the solid beat and familiar cadences, the exciting breaks and inspired solos tend to make us forget these troubled times. NEV ORLEANS JAZZ as played by Irving Fazola and his Dixieland Band contains eight of the standard classics in the Dixieland repertoire (Victor WHJ 12).

HITS OF "THE GOLDEN TWENTIES" arranged and played by Morton Gould and his orchestra offers listeners eight tunes closely associated with the gay and unpredictable era known as "The Twenties." There is a certain sloppiness about the performance and a definite need for further rehearsal by the brass and reeds that detracts noticeably from my listening pleasure. Personally I could pass this by with no great loss, but regardless of my personal opinion, many people will get a great deal of pleasure from this collection.

Thrush Kay Starr and cowboy Tennessee Ernie team up on a "rock and roll" blues duet ILL NEVER BE FREE (Capitol 1124). This is a compulsive, impelling and forceful bit of fluff that will attract many listeners. The plattermate is a corn-ball rhythm ditty called AIN'T NOBODY'S BUSINESS BUT MY OWN.

Two songs from the flicker Let's Dance are raked up back to back by the Mills Brothers—tunes are THE TUNNEL OF LOVE and WHY FIGHT THE FEELING (Decca 27104). Ditties are treated to the usual fine harmonizing of the Mills Brothers.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS: The lovable cat and mouse team Tom & Jerry that you have seen in animated cartoons so often at your favorite theater are now available in a children's set. TOM AND JERRY AT THE CIRCUS tells of the laughable adventures of these two characters when the circus comes to town. There are two non-breakable records and a full color picture book in the set.

CLASSICAL RECORDS: The proud and lovely warhorse TCHAIKOVSKY: PIANO CONCERTO NO. 1 in B Flat Minor has just appeared in a new recording with Conrad Hansen, piano and the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Mengelberg (Capitol Telefunken P-8097). Those of you who read this column regularly know of my fondness for Mengelberg's work and his virile interpretation of this familiar classic is really superb. Conrad Hansen is entirely adequate as the soloist even if he lacks some of the fire and technical magnificence of Rubinstein. So often soloists and conductors have different ideas of the interpretation of the music that one is conscious of the battle of their personalities under the flow of the music but here soloist and orchestra play as one under the sure hand of Mengelberg. Few works have been exploited, copied, violated and vulgarized as much as this First Concerto of Tchaikovsky's, but it is still beautiful music, unrivaled for lovely melody and exquisite coloring and will continue to hold undiminished appeal for millions of music lovers.

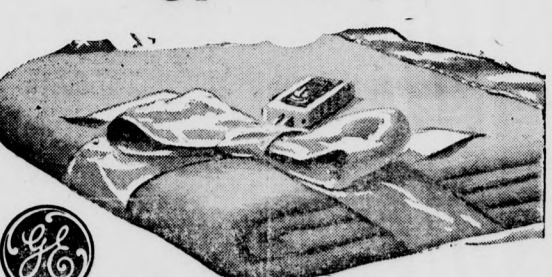

A new recording of FRANK: SYMPHONY IN D MINOR by Pierre Monteux and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra is outstanding in many ways. Monteux approaches Frank with such authority, such beautiful simplicity and straightforwardness, such profound understanding and sensitive response to the spiritual values of the music that I am compelled to prefer his interpretation above all others—even Mengelberg's. Frank was a true mystic, that is one who sought by contemplation and self-forgetfulness to come close to the great creative force which men call God; one who kept his own mind and heart so clean and uncluttered that certain spiritual truths became real to him. These truths he sought to express in his music and this serene otherworldliness is Cesar Frank's unique contribution to music. The extraordinary popularity of this Symphony seems to prove that Frank music with its spiritual significance strikes a responsive chord in all of us. If I must be lost on a desert island with only ten compositions to fill my musical needs for the rest of my life surely Frank's Symphony in D Minor would be close to the top of the list.

Sport Shorts

By JERRY THOMAS

NEW LOOK PLUS . . . With the debut of a new coaching staff scheduled for Campbell high this fall, it seems fitting and proper that equipment and sundry other gear should also be new. Every year a certain amount of athletic material is purchased but according to George Egling, dean of boys, it appears that this season more equipment than usual has been acquired.

Egling is acting as temporary advisor to Supply Commissioner Paul Hawkinson, a student officer. The consulting position was vacated when Dean Chamberlin entered the service last month.

"This is one of the heaviest years for the acquisition of new gear," Egling said in regard to the pile upon pile of shoulder pads, knee pads, jackets and other athletic gear momentarily stowed in the gym office.

A quick run-down on material present and yet to be delivered reveals the following: 25 new rib pads, 60 pairs of knee pads, 13 (tan and black) helmets for the B team, 35 (scarlet) helmets for the varsity, 10 thigh pads, eight shoulder pads, 14 hip and kidney pads, 15 sideline jackets, 40 scarlet game jerseys and 17 game shirts.

Oh, yes, we must not forget the 432 spanking new locker baskets and individual locks that were just installed in the boys' gym, plus the fresh paint job recently completed throughout the males' quarters.

With this sharp looking gear and environment, not to mention a young aggressive coaching clan, all that now remains is the production of a satisfactory football eleven.

LOOKS GOOD ANYWAY . . . With pigskin perusin' the prime sports prose these days, regardless of the pennant races, let us continue with a gridiron menu and slowly digest more local tidbits.

If ambition and extra-curricular activity among the brain powers means anything to the success of a given eleven, then the local squad will be regally indoctrinated, but for sure.

Head Mentor Jim Muir, in an attempt to correlate and unify his staff along one system, called for three staff meetings at his Carolyn avenue home earlier this month.

Junior Morgan, backfield coach, and George Miskulin, line boss, met with Muir three times last week, going over the Bucs' offfense, various pass patterns, blocking assignments and the million other vital factors that are forever changing rapidly disappearing hairs on each and every coach.

Mr. Harold Drummond, athletic director at Campbell high, attended the first meeting also.

If mass concentration and suggestion of the mental thrusts tend to alleviate the troubles of a coaching staff, Muir and Co. have it made. But for now, no prognostications as yet.

BY THE WAY . . . As We all know, Western Gravel Co. who sponsors one of the better softball teams around these parts is situated within Campbell proper, roughly just four blocks from the heart of the community's business center.

Last month, the Western Gravel softball team participated in the Santa Clara County Softball tournament in San Jose. Prior to the games and even during the contests, the local squad was referred to as the Western Gravel club of San Jose by the papers and other sources. Upon winning the tournament after heated competition with the best of the area, the team was still called Western Gravel of S.J.

In addition the club has made a name for itself in the rugged Graham League, one of the fastest loops playing out of San Jose this fall. But the club was still from San Jose.

Here comes the gimmick, be it a slip of the pen, plain forgetfulness or the simple, much used art of disowning a winner.

Up at the regional softball tournament at San Mateo and Redwood City, Western Gravel ran into trouble. Victories and titles cannot be amassed by one club indefinitely. Western Gravel met its Waterloo and got pumped rather unceremoniously out of the fray.

Strange as it seems, the following day reports of the game read as follows: "Western Gravel of San Jose and Campbell lost, etc." or other words of equal meaning.

To our uninformed and oft-times unread eyes, this recognition of Campbell being the home stamping-grounds for Western Gravel marked the first time in many a moon that any such relationship existed, at least among certain foreign circles.

Did you ever stop and realize that whenever anyone or anything loses its ranking, position, and the bandwagon on magically shrinks to the proportions of an out-dated kitty-kart?

YOUTH PERSONIFIED . . . The local high school probably has one of the youngest Physical Education staffs in the county or state. The average age for the three full-time members and two part-time men is 27 years. Football Coach Jim Muir is only 25 with Bert Robertson, basketball mentor an ancient 28. George Miskulin, line coach, has seen 27 summers thus far with Junior Morgan the youth of the group, being only 24. Jules Langlois, in charge of the lightweights, is the grandpop of them all as he is hovering about the 33-year age.

With such a young staff and the student body growing ever so rapidly, a long-range optimist has a right to smile silently and fondly anticipate future Campbell athletic teams.

RIGHT TO VOTE ON HOUSING

Although Californians will find the shortest list of ballot measures since 1916 on going to the polls November 7, the 11 statewide measures to be voted on promise to provide just as hotly contested a campaign period as most lengthier ballots have provoked.

Proposition 10, an initiative constitutional amendment titled Public Housing Project Law, if approved by the electorate, would provide that before the state or any county, city, or subdivision thereof could accept federal funds for construction of public housing, the consent, at an election, of the voters would be required.

CANNOT VOTE NOW

At present Boards of Supervisors or State or Federal Bureaus which believe a housing project desirable for a certain area are not required to let the people of that area decide whether or not they need or wish it. Every time a public housing measure has ever appeared on the California ballot it has been turned down; but in spite of that indication of public feeling, in some areas public officials have adopted such programs.

Advocates of Proposition 10 hold that the measure is "neither for nor against public housing. Passage of the Public Housing Project Law," they state, "will restore to the citizens of a city, town or county, as the case may be, the right to decide whether public housing is needed or wanted in each particular locality. Such is not the case at present."

Opponents of the measure claim that it is an attack on public housing—that the people should not be permitted the right to decide whether or not they need or wish public housing in their locality as provided for by Proposition 10.

Opponents further claim that California would lose out on its share of federal grants-in-aid for housing if the amendment is passed.

To that, Proposition 10 backers counter that such a statement is outright admission that if the people were allowed to vote for or against public housing they would turn it down. In other words, supporters of the act claim that the only opposition to their measure comes from a few public housing zealots who are afraid to let the people decide the issue.

Proposition 10 has no effect on any project subject to existing contract between any State-created agency and the Federal Government. It applies only to future contracts.

The issue in Proposition 10 is simple: "Do the people have the right to decide such questions?" A "no" vote means that the people should not be allowed to decide; a "yes" vote on 10 is not a vote for or against public housing—it is solely to permit the electorate to make that decision when the problem arises.

Mounted Groups To Ride At Fair

Northern California mounted groups will parade before thousands of spectators at the Santa Clara County Fair Sunday, September 17.

Marie Lezie Opens Los Gatos Studio

Marie Lezie has announced the opening of her photographic studio in Los Gatos at 236 N. Santa Cruz Avenue. The well-known photographer had her studio in San Jose for many years, but sold it two years ago to retire.

"The urge to express myself in art again prompted me to open a studio, preferring Los Gatos for its climate, scenery, and hospitable atmosphere."

Mrs. Lezie has been a photographer for 27 years, having started her career in Modesto, and has been awarded merit and recognition by some of the nation's finest critics in professional photography.

Her father was a photographer and she remembers assisting him, from the time she was 10 years old in his studio where she stamped and rolled the pictures, a custom in those days.

Once she yielded to temptation and snapped the shutter while her father was busy posing a subject, thus spoiling the film.

Marie Lezie is not a stranger in this area, for she has photographed many local residents. Her new studio is designed and furnished to give a homelike atmosphere.

Why Bill Bibb and most P. G. and E. people like their jobs

Edward M. Linnell, Fall River Mills, California, was a blacksmith and welder with us before he retired on a pension. Ed is famous for his work with corrective horseshoes, and still runs a small forge in back of his home.

Virginia E. Harris, clerk in the General Office Engineering Department, was a pretty sick girl for two months last winter. But P. G. and E.'s cooperative Benefit Plan took care of practically all her expenses. And she's planning to catch up on the skiing she missed last season when the first good snow hits the hills.

The fact that P. G. and E. people like their jobs is one reason why they do their jobs well. And that's important to every community we serve.

The job they do has been greatly responsible for keeping your gas and electric rates among the lowest in the nation. It's helped put an annual payroll of nearly $70 million into Northern and Central California. And from the projects P. G. and E. people have built come federal, state, county and local taxes amounting to $40,278,000 in 1949. And, of course, their teamwork has enabled us to add 1,156,400 new horsepower since the war. By this time next year our total capacity will be nearly 4,000,000 horsepower—ample for our needs today, a good base to build on for the growing years ahead.
